Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims ~~4~~<sup>1-12</sup> rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weiss (4093237).

Claims 1,7,12: Weiss teaches a game board (Fig.2) comprising a plurality of game pieces, a plurality of first game pieces designated by a first type (Kings), a plurality of second game pieces designated by a second type (pawn), a plurality of third game pieces designated by a third type (bishop), a plurality of forth game pieces designated by a forth type (rooks), a plurality of fifth game pieces designated by a fifth type (knight), a plurality of sixth game pieces designated by a sixth type (queens), wherein a all four queens are different in colors and associated with different colors, further the game board comprising outer (peripheral) and inner squares.

Claims 2,8: Weiss game board teaching all game piece types to be configured in different (K,Q,R,B,Kt,P).

Claims 3,9: Weiss game board having grid of squares (Fig.2) at least 8x8.

Claim 4: Weiss teaches outer perimeter and inner area of squares (Fig.2).

Claims 5,10: Weiss teaches a die as a randomizer means (4:38).

Art Unit: 3711

Claim 6,11: Weiss game pieces are capable of being designated as tree types.

Designations are intended use and not further limiting apparatus claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 33,34 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Weiss. Weiss teaches all limitations except that it does not teach first type of game pieces in a specific shape. Examiner takes the position that game piece shapes are configured according to personal preferences that are aesthetically pleasing. The art area of game boards is an amusement art area and in order to attract players it would have been obvious to configure game pieces aesthetically pleasing. One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have suggested configuring specific shapes for game pieces to attract potential players.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3711

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
